

COMPLAINTS POLICY

1. Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to ensure that concerns and complaints against All About Training/All About Hair & Beauty Training, its trainers, assessors, other staff, third parties providing services on its behalf and learners shall be handled impartially, justly and with confidentiality. All About Training/All About Hair & Beauty Training ensures the principles of natural justice and procedural fairness will be adopted at every stage of the complaint process. The complaints process consists of a number of stages.

2. Scope

Any person/s wishing to make a complaint, appeal, or any other matter against All About Training/All About Hair & Beauty Training concerning its conduct as an RTO, shall have access to the complaints procedure. All formal complaints will be heard by All About Training/All About Hair & Beauty Training within 60 calendar days of the receipt of the written complaint. If, for whatever reason, more than 60 days is required to process and finalise the complaint, All About Training/All About Hair & Beauty Training will inform the complainant in writing giving reasons why additional time is required. All About Training/All About Hair & Beauty Training will regularly update the complainant on the progress of the complaint. All About Training's Manager will deal with the complaint or convene an independent panel to hear the complaint if the process fails to resolve the complaint, or the complainant requests a review. The complaints committee shall not have had any previous involvement with the complaint. A register of Complaints which documents all formal complaints and their resolution will be securely maintained by All About Training/All About Hair & Beauty Training. All About Training/All About Hair & Beauty Training will identify any potential causes of complaints and appeals and take corrective action to eliminate such complaints in the future. Any substantiated complaints will be reviewed as part of the continuous improvement procedure.

4. Complaints procedure

Should a learner or other person seek to make a complaint the following procedure will be followed:

Step 1

The complainant can make an informal verbal approach to the trainer/course presenter or an administration representative where the issue will be discussed. If the complaint cannot be resolved proceed to Step 2.

Step 2

A written formal complaint will need to be lodged. All formal complaints must be addressed to the CEO of All About Training/All About Hair & Beauty Training who will provide written acknowledgement of the receipt of the complaint. A form has been created for this called the Complaints and Appeals Form. Please ask at administration for this. All formal complaints will be heard by All About Training's CEO within 60 calendar days of the receipt of the written complaint.

Step 3

Where All About Training/All About Hair & Beauty Training considers more than 60 calendar days are required to process and finalise the complaint they will:

- a) inform the complainant in writing, including reasons why more than 60 calendar days are required; and
- b) regularly update the complainant on the progress of the matter

Step 4

If the current process fails to resolve the complaint, and if requested by the complainant, All About Training/All About Hair & Beauty Training will convene an independent panel (two members and a chair) to conduct a review of the complaint. All documentation will be provided to the complaint committee who may choose to hear from the parties /witnesses orally.

Step 5

After reviewing and evaluating all the evidence the independent body will make a decision on the complaint/appeal and advise the complainant/s of the outcome in writing and the reasons for their decision.

Step 6

All About Training/All About Hair & Beauty Training will record all complaints and appeals and their outcomes and securely maintain all records of the process. All About Training/All About Hair & Beauty Training will identify any potential causes of complaints and take appropriate corrective action to eliminate them as part of their continuous improvement processes
